Our Mission

St. Joseph's...

...a place where the homeless and the poor are welcomed as our brothers and sisters.

...a haven for those in need. And, we strive to serve them with compassion and love.

...a community that unites city and suburbs, poor and affluent, young and old, and people of all colors.

Thank you to all who joined us for a fabulous evening of jazz in April! We were delighted that nearly 300 people attended the performance.

Thank you again to all of the musicians, sponsors, and volunteers, especially our organizer, Bob Findlay, and to our host Union Catholic High School.

We look forward to more special events and hope that you will join us!

It's Summer and We Need Fans...

Many of our clients suffer in the heat.

If you are able to donate a fan, it would be greatly appreciated!

Donations are gratefully accepted on Saturdays from 9-11 and Monday through Friday from 8:30-4:30. Thank you!

volunteers to get our adult students back into the workforce.

Colletta's career included a variety of roles in the banking industry's computer and human resources departments and at Union Township Chamber of Commerce, initially as the manager, then the executive director.

Colletta Liccardi

Most recently, she retired from a 17-year career in teaching that included teaching Business Education at the secondary level and Computer Education at the elementary level. These are experiences that have made Colletta our ideal choice for Director of Project Ready. We are lucky to have her on board!

Good Things...

Happen at St. Joseph's

We are thrilled to be a recipient of "Farmer's Market Friday" produce from the Community Food Bank. This month our clients received potatoes, cabbage, cucumber, and watermelon right in our parking lot!

A good thing...lining up for fresh vegetables and fruit.

Our clients and volunteers check the latest delivery.
